7. The clerks of the courts of this State may issue an execution on judgment or decree at any time after the rendition thereof, directed to the sheriff of another county, whether the return of nulla bona to a writ of execution issued to the sheriff of the county or city wherein the said judgment or decree was rendered has been made or not, which writ of execution, issued and directed to the sheriff of another county, shall be made returnable to the circuit court for the county to which it may be sent, and if sent to the city of Baltimore returnable to the superior court of said city; and there shall be sent therewith by the clerk issuing the same to the clerk of the court to which said writ shall be returnable a copy of the docket entries in the case, upon which the court may proceed on said execution by renewal or otherwise, in the same manner as if said execution had issued on a judgment or decree rendered in said court; and an attachment on judgment or decree shall be regarded as an execution within the meaning of this section; provided, that no judgment or decree shall be a lien upon real estate situated in another county from that wherein the said judgment or decree was obtained, or in the city of Baltimore, except from the date of the entry of the copy of the docket entries by the clerk of the court to which the said writ shall be returnable.

The object of requiring a copy of the docket entries to be sent, is to inform the court whether a judgment has been rendered, and execution properly issued. Though the clerk fails to make a proper copy, the execution will not be quashed if the court can see that there was a valid subsisting judgment, and that the execution properly issued. Copy of docket entries held sufficient under this section. Mitchell v. Chestnut, 31 Md. 526.

After the issue of the first fi. fa., a writ of attachment may be issued instead of a second fi. fa. Copy of docket entries held insufficient. Griffith v. Lynch, 21 Md. 577.

When the forfeiture of a recognizance is entered by the court, it becomes a judgment, and is embraced within the terms of this section. Schultze v. State, 43 Md. 306.

A judgment in one county is not a lien upon lands situated in a different county, unless the judgment has been transferred to the latter county under this section. Farmers' Bank v. Heighe, 3 Md. 357. See also, Hayden v. Stewart, 1 Md. Ch. 462.

For a case dealing with this section as it stood prior to the act of 1888, ch. 475, in connection with article 75, sections 111 and 112, see Browning v. Loraw, 58 Md. 525.

For a case construing the acts of 1777, ch. 12, and 1794, ch. 54, see Harden v. Moores, 7 H. & J. 11. See also, Cape Sable Co.'s Case, 3 Bl. 666.
